O-OPERATION OF EMPLOYERS AND MEN CO-OPERATION OF EMPLOYERS AND MEN.

It is proposed to make use of the existing yards and their extensions to their fullest possible economic capacity, and it was recently a source of the greatest possible astisfaction to His Majesty's Government that the associations of employers and men engaged in a deputation to the Prime Minister to represent to him their intention to co-operate in every possible way, recognising, as they do, the vital need of tonnage at the present time.

As the Prime Minister stated, this joint deputation may well mark a very important step forward in the industrial relations in this country, and we cannot over estimate the value of this whole-hearted co-operation in repairing the damage done by the enemy submarine campaign.

THE NATIONAL YARDS.

THE NATIONAL YARDS.

THE NATIONAL YARDS.

It is the intention of the Government that the national shipyards should be supplementary to private yards, but it is on the latter that the first reliance is placed. The national shipyards are situated on the River Severn. These sites have been chosen, in the first place because they afford good facilities for launching and fitting out ships; in the second place, because they lie in a district from which steel can readily be obtained, thus saving transportation of the output of South Wales, which to-day is carried long distances; and, last, but not least, because the sites which are available for the housing of the workmen are healthier and better than could be secured in almost any other part of the country.

LORD LANSDOWNE'S LETTER.

"You invited Lord Lansdowne to discuss with SCOTSMEN ROUSED.

You invited Lord Lansdowne to discuss with you, by means of correspondence in your local Press, various points arising out of his recent letter to the Daily Telegraph. He is quite ready to defend the statements contained in that letter. He feels, however, that you have not read it with sufficient attention, for you are apparently under the impression that he has suggested an ignominious surrender; that he is responsible for the proposal for a wholerale rearrangement of the map of South-Eastern responsible for the proposal for a wholerale rearrangement of the map of South-Eastern Europe; that he desires to abandon our naval supremacy; and that he is prepared to be content with an international compact, in which our only security would be the word or signature of a German Minister. Lord Lanedowne has made no proposals of the sort, and he feels has made no proposals of the sort, and he feels 49,800 FOR FOUR NECKLACES. sure that no useful object would be achieved by commencing a correspondence upon these wholly mistaken assumptions."

THE HALIFAX DISASTER.

SENSATIONAL ARREST.

A Halifax undated telegram says:—The police here have arrested a passenger, believed to be a German, from an American steamer which arrived to-day from Boston with relief supplies. It is reported that maps of Halifax and important papers were found in his possession.

MAXIMALISTS CLAIM VICTORY.

Reuter's Petrograd Correspondent states that, according to a telegram from the delegate of the People's Commissioners, troops from Petrograd have occupied Tandrovka and Kaluga. Shock troops have been disarmed and arrested. Revolutionary authority has been restored. The Commissioner with the Black Sea Fleet has telegraphed for reinforcements, adding that the military cadets are attacking Rostoff.

CIVIL WAP IN DEFENDACE.

CIVIL WAR IN PETROGRAD.

Civil war is now no longer a probability, but a fact, says the Petrograd Correspondent of the Daily Telegraph Petrograd is the citadel of Bolahevism, hence the absolute necessity, from the point of view of Lenin's Government, to prevent the spread of the robellion. Drastic measures are, therefore, being taken to secure the failure of any scrious movement. This morning the Bolshevik Government published an order to arrest all the cadet leaders. I am told that already several have been arrested, in addition to those imprisoned yeaterday, who were to-day formally charged with supporting Kornkoff. The evidence, as yet, is not forthecoming. It is understood that there are differences of opinion among the Bolsheviks as to the wisdom of arresting democratically-elected delegates. Trotsky is reported to have declared that the arrest of the cadets was the only possible means of saving them from lynching. A bare possibility exists of a bargain between the Bolsheviks and the Romanoffs, on terms favourable to both. It appears that the Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovitch, while recently spending four days at Smolny, was treated with the utmost respect by everybod—from Lenin downwards. It is certain that the Bolsheviks, and especially Kamonoff, are generally believed to favour a Constitutional Monarchy.

BOLSHEVIKS AND THE

BOLSHEVIKS AND THE

ASSEMBLY. The special correspondent of the Daily Chronicle in Petrograd hints at the possibility of a public uprising in the capital against the Bolsheviks because of their attempt to suppress or subvert the Constituent Assembly. By excluding the cadeta or constitutional democrats, they are seeking to associate them with the Cossack rising, and hope to secure the support of the Assembly in the negotiations with the Germans, which were resumed yesterday at the enemy headquarters.

> The Food Crisis

How to eat less and still be equally well nourished.

THE whole nation must eat at least one-fifth less food. It is not a question of eating less of one thing and more of another, but of eating less altogether.

This national saving can be made out of the food that is now wasted through lack of assimilation by the body. When, for instance, you eat bread or a dish of vegetables, you do not get from it all the potential nourishment, that is, all the nourishment that is in the food. But, if you add Bovril to your diet, you will get the nourishment and the power which you do not now obtain. The body-building powers of Bovril have been proved by independent scientific investigation to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken. Eat less-but take Bovril. There is a striking confirmation of this in the following report :-"The addition of a small teaspoonful of Bovril to the diet as a peptogenie before meals leads to more thorough digestion and assimilation and thus saves food. "The diet may then be out down from 4 to 1 and the body still be adequately nourished."

DULL AND DROOPING MARKETS. DEPRESSION IN DUBLIN DISTILLERS, COATS, AND DUNLOPS OFFERED.

There was further evidence of slackness in the volume of business on Change to-day, and the trend of prices was again in favour of buyers, though instances of improvement were not wanting. The guitatanding feature was the further sharp fall in Dublin Distillers issues on sale pressure, and the market casel rather flat. The Funds again gave way.

Banks were rather supported, but the only change was a rise of i to 16 in Nationals, Sellers preponderated in Breweries and Distillers issues were decidedly weak on further realisations.
